To recall, the Xiaomi Redmi 5A or 'Desh Ka Smartphone' sports a 5-inch HD display and is powered by quad-core 64-bit Qualcomm Snapdragon 425 processor clocked at 1.4GHz. The smartphone comes in two RAM/ROM variants- 2GB RAM/16GB ROM and 3GB RAM/32GB ROM, both the options coming with the option to expand up to 128GB with the use of a microSD card.

It has its highlight in the form of the 3,000mAh battery which is claimed to last up to eight days of standby time.

Camera-wise, the Redmi 5A houses a 13-megapixel rear shooter with LED flash, 5p lens, and PDAF, while the front-facing snapper is rated at 5-megapixel. The smartphone runs the latest MIUI 9.0 based on Android 7.0 Nougat and supports facial recognition.

The Xiaomi Redmi 5A is priced at Rs 4,999 (2GB RAM/16GB ROM), discounted from Rs 5,999 for the first five million units and Rs 6,999 (3GB RAM/32GB ROM).
